

APPROACH | WHAT IS STO P?

Community Organising: Capabilities

Abstract

The concept of community is central to the StoP approach because communities, especially local communities or neighbourhoods, have the potential to bring about positive change, including in the areas of gender equality and domestic violence. This section begins by clarifying what we mean by community, and whether there is still such a thing as a supportive neighbourhood in the 21st century, or whether this is just a romantic notion. It will show the benefits and capabilities of neighbourhoods and prove that community matters.

AUTHOR: Sabine Stövesand

DISCLAIMER: Violence against women* is the focus of StoP's work - this includes anyone identifying or being perceived as a woman. This material (including the illustrations) can only be used and reproduced in the context of StoP work. Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union or the European Commission (granting authority). Neither the European Union nor the granting authority can be held responsible for them.