StoP Organising Process

- Initiators mobilise resources and employ organisers who (sometimes together with the initiators) carry out community assessments and find/mobilise local leaders through one-to-one meetings, who then (some of them) become part of the local StoP network and recommend, mobilise, connect organisers to other community members who
- with the help of the organiser, organise themselves and form the StoP community group(s) that are at the heart of the further organising process. Together they form the local StoP community network. Members of the local community can participate and support the network on special occasions. In addition organisers might also contact community members directly.
